HYMNS AND TUNES

FOR

PRAISE IN THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL.

BY

J. H. KURZENKNABE AND W. W. BENTLEY.

WITH A FULL ARRANGEMENT FOR THE

SUNDAY-SCHOOL ORCHESTRA.

GREETING.

“FAIR AS THE MORNING” is not intended to be used at
All the various services connected with the sanctuary.
It is designed expressly for the Sunday-school; to be
Really and only a Sunday-school Praise Book.

As heretofore, we spare no effort nor expense to provide a
Singing book in every way worthy and acceptable.

The great number of well-known and prominent authors who
Have contributed to these pages deserve our heartiest thanks for
Enriching these contents with their choicest songs.

Music in the Sunday-school has become of such prominence that
Orchestras are being rapidly introduced into many schools,
Requiring full orchestration for these various instruments,
Now for the first time attempted by any author of Sunday-school song.
In this advance step we ask the kind and generous word of cheer.
None other be the praise, the honor, nor the
Glory but to Him who alone is worthy.

HARRISBURG, PA., March 31, A. D. 1891.

We shall Reap as We have Sown.

Rev. L. WHITE.

I. N. McHose.

1. We shall reap as we have sown in the world's broad field, Reap as we have sown, Reap as we have sown;
 2. Let us sow the seeds of love by the wa - ters still, Sow the seeds of love, Sow the seeds of love,

Eve - ry lov - ing deed we've done shall a har - vest yield, When the Lord shall claim His own.
 For the work that we may do shall a man - sion fill, When the Lord shall claim His own.
 There are err - ing ones to guide to the home on high, When the Lord shall claim His own.
 And we all shall then ap - pear at the judg - ment throne, When the Lord shall crown His own.

Beautiful Land of the Blest.

Arr. by J. H. K.

J. H. KURZENKNABE.

1. By the hut of the peas-ant where pov-er-ty weeps, And nigh to the tow'rs of the king,—
 2. Each hour and each mo-ment a mes-sen-ger comes, And beckons us o-ver the way;
 3. Not a charm that we knew ere the bound'ry was crossed, When we stood in the val-ley a-lone—

Close, close to the cra-dle where in-fan-cy sleeps, And joy loves to lin-ger and sing,
 Through heart-throbs and sighing, and beat-ing of drums, An ar-m-y of mor-tals o-bey.
 No trait that we miss in our dar-ling is lost; 'Tis fair-er and love-li-er grown.

There's a gar-den of light full of heav-en's per-fume, On its por-tals no shad-ows e'er rest,
 And the friends that in tears kissed the mo-tion-less brow, Shall a-gain meet the loved they have missed;
 As the lil-ies burst forth, when the shad-ows of night In-to bond-age at day-light are pressed,

And the ro - ses and lil - ies are ev - er in bloom, 'Tis the beau - ti - ful land of the blest.
 There, be - yond the dark vale, they beek - on us now, To the beau - ti - ful land of the blest.
 So they bask in the glow of the pil - lar of light, In the beau - ti - ful land of the blest.

CHORUS.

Beau - - - ti - ful land! . . . The land . . . of the blest: . . . 'Tis the Land of the beau - ti - ful, land of the blest; Beau - ti - ful land of the saved and blest!

land . . . of the beau - - - ti - ful; Beau - ti - ful land of the blest!

Soul, Let Him In.

E. A. HOFFMAN.

I. N. McHose.

SOLO. DUET.

1. Christ is standing at the door, Soul, let Him in! Knocking, knocking ev-er-more, Soul, let Him in!
2. He has come from heav'n above, Soul, let Him in! He is pleading for thy love, Soul, let Him in!
3. Do not turn thy Lord a-way, Soul, let Him in! Oh, ac-cept His grace to-day, Soul, let Him in!

He has come in love to thee, And He waits, how tenderly! From thy sin to set thee free, Soul, let Him in!
Worldling, from all idols part, Yield to Christ thy restless heart; He will peace to thee impart, Soul, let Him in!
Should He never call again, And thou at the last remain Lost, for ever lost—what then? Soul, let Him in!

The Christian Graces.

DR. THEO. J. PRICE.

(For Concerts and Anniversaries.)

WILLIAM W. BENTLEY.

A beautiful representation of the Scriptures by ten little girls, with their names upon cards in shape of a shield. A selection of voices should be made to render the Semi-Chorus, the whole school joining in the Full Chorus.

SEMI-CHORUS.

1. Let us learn the Christian graces, As we walk the heavenly road, Mark the pathway each one traces
 2. Patience still the cross up-bearing, Lowly at its foot we bow, Sinful, trembling, weeping, fearing:
 3. TEMPERANCE has brought her lilies, Spotless white, to wind around:— Patience with her bur-den smiling,

Up-ward to the blest a-bode. He who loves must learn forbearance, He who gains must suf-fer loss;
 FAITH has crown'd with flowers its brow. Lo! its beau-ty now dis-cern-ing, VIRTUE adds an-oth-er wreath;
 Plants its foot up-on the ground. Sweet EXPERIENCE now shall aid her To sus-tain the light-er load,

FULL CHORUS.

Trib-u-lation worketh patience, PATIENCE meekly bears the cross. }
 And its growing glories learning, KNOWLEDGE hangs some fruits beneath. } For the love we owe to Je-sus,
 While fond HOPE inspires new vigor, Pointing to the blest a-bode. }

For the love He hath bestowed, Let us learn the Christian gra-ces, As we walk the heavenly road.

4 Now in songs of loud hosannas,
Lift our voices heavenward.
Lo! what wondrous grace advances?
"Holiness unto the Lord!"
GODLINESS, her name—O hear it!—
Welcome, loveliest sister, here!—
Godliness in life and spirit,
Godliness in faith and prayer.—CHO.

5 Hark! a voice is speaking kindly:
"Let us one another love."
Hail! all hail! O how divinely!—
All our hearts thy words approve.
LOVE, dear CHRISTIAN LOVE, come near us,
While we join in fond embrace;
All is joy, and heaven seems near us;
All our hearts are full of peace.—CHO.

6 Yet again we give our greeting
To another bright and fair,
On whose brow with meekness meeting,
Love and pity mingle there.
Rise up, sister, not so lowly,
Gifts of charms we bring to thee;
We must fade before thy glory,
CHARITY, sweet CHARITY.—CHO.

7 While around the cross we gather,
With our circle all complete,
We implore Thee, gracious Father!
That we all in heaven may meet.
Now we part, but there remaineth
FAITH, and HOPE, and CHARITY.
These abideth, but the greatest
Of the three is CHARITY.—CHO.

Enter PATIENCE, bearing a rough cross upon shoulder, and takes position in centre of stage. Enter FAITH with wreath of flowers which she hangs on arm of cross, and takes position by Patience at the right. Enter VIRTUE with wreath, stands at the right of Faith. Enter KNOWLEDGE with basket of fruit which she places under the arm of the cross, takes position at the right of Virtue. Enter TEMPERANCE with lilies, and winds around the cross, takes her place at the right of Knowledge. Enter EXPERIENCE, who steps to the side of Patience and assists in holding the cross, first standing it upon the floor. Enter HOPE, and, advancing in front of Patience, points upward till singing of Chorus, then takes position at the left of Experience. Enter GODLINESS and takes position by the side of Hope. LOVE enters, repeating softly, "Let us one another love," and takes position by the side of Godliness. Enter CHARITY who kneels at the foot of the cross. Experience lifts her up, when she takes her position by the side of Love. All graces now advance and join hands, encircling Patience and Experience, till reaching the words, "Now we part," when they retire to back of stage, leaving Faith and Hope on each side of the cross, and Charity in front. Sing chorus and retire.
